Chateau de la Mulonniere 2009 Coteaux du Layon Beaulieu A la Faveur de l'Automne Superrich and resonant, this is barrel fermented and aged, creating bold spice that accelerates as it hits botrytis notes of honey. It's savory more than sweet, with a calcareous earthiness that brings roasted beef bones to mind. The wine vibrates with the complexity of its soil-derived flavors. For foie gras.»

Guy Saget 2009 Château de la Mulonnière à la Faveur d'Automne (Coteaux du Layon Beaulieu). This is a sweet, botrytized wine, treading the line between richness and intense acidity. A dry edge and flavors of ripe yellow fruits and a touch of maple syrup give the wine both complexity and aging potential. Pasternak Wine Imports. —R.V.
